What is ApeCoin?

Built on the Ethereum blockchain, ApeCoin is an ERC-20 governance and utility token. APE is the native cryptocurrency of one of the famous and valuable non-fungible token (NFT) collections: the Bored Ape Yacht Club by Yuga Labs. It seeks to empower the development of a decentralized community at the forefront of Web 3.

The token is governed by ApeCoin DAO, while the APE Foundation serves as a base layer. ApeCoin DAO establishes governance guidelines, chooses projects and collaborations, decides how to distribute the Ecosystem Fund, and more. The foundation takes on responsibilities of daily administration, bookkeeping, project management, and other tasks to support the DAO community's ideas.

Under the guidance of DAO, ApeCoin was officially released in March 2022 as “a token for culture, gaming, and commerce.”

The token was distributed among NFT holders, the ApeDAO treasury, and other stakeholders like Yuga Labs, the Cartan Group, and the APE Foundation and its board members.

This project paved the way for users to invest in NFTs instead of buying them. It also allowed for greater participation of users in response to the hype around NFTs. Users could simply buy ApeCoin and invest in a number of NFTs instead of buying an entire NFT.

Although Yuga Labs does not have direct ownership of ApeCoin, its founders did acquire a sizable share of the coin's supply, and the business is listed as a contributor to the project. The company, also serving as a community member in the ApeCoin DAO, has adopted ApeCoin as its primary token in the projects they undertake.

What Makes ApeCoin Different?

- BAYC (the most expensive collection of NFTs) is behind APECOIN. Therefore, this coin has a good reputation from others because of the endorsement.
- A major competitive advantage of ApeCoin is its association with Yuga Labs, arguably the most influential presence in the NFT space. As a result, ApeCoin benefits from all the social capital associated with Bored Ape Yacht Club and all other projects in the Yuga Labs ecosystem.
- In addition to NFT rewards, APECOIN allows payment options and other exclusive features within the APE ecosystem.
- APECOIN has been in the limelight since its appearance. The creators offered many incentives to increase their usefulness.

Overall, ApeCoin has reasonable use cases and is outperforming key benchmarks.

ApeCoin Price Prediction - Will ApeCoin Reach $1,000?

Investors who are particularly bullish on ApeCoin often discuss ApeCoin price prediction $1,000. To reach $1,000, ApeCoin will have to rise 478x, which translates to a market cap of 368 billion. While this is not impossible in the crypto industry and some top tokens have achieved this target, there are practical challenges and there has to be significant progress in ApeCoin use cases to justify these levels.

Base on current trend and our analysis, we would say that ApeCoin is unlikely to reach $1,000.

ApeCoin Price Prediction - Conclusion

There are a few reasons why it is incredibly challenging to make ApeCoin price predictions. First of all, its fundamental value as a token is tied to a hype-dependent project — an NFT collection. Although the Bored Ape Yacht Club is one the biggest projects of its kind and has been picked up by many celebrities, it has already started declining in popularity.

Of course, the project isn't just about NFTs: it's about networking with the rich and famous at in-person parties, it's about supporting a platform that does cool things in the blockchain industry, and much more.

Although many ideas behind NFTs are incredible in theory, many people are not as fond of them in practice. The concerns we hear most often are fairly justified: high levels of power consumption, the speculative nature of crypto, lack of proper regulation, and so on. However, some of them are already being resolved — now it's just a matter of changing the public's perception.

As of right now, ApeCoin is extremely speculative. While the team behind the project is solid, there is yet to be much real utility for the token. If the project can create real use cases for investors, then the token may anticipate massive growth and make great profits in the future.

In closing, please know the forecast figures are generated using our price prediction tool and in that matter, not a guarantee, that the actual price action will follow what we mentioned. Forecasts are not immune to changing circumstances and will be updated with new developments. Always do your own research and evaluate all necessary factors before making any investment.
