What is Moonbix?

“Moonbix” is a brand-new play-to-earn (P2E) game on Telegram’s Mini App. First launched by Binance, Moonbix is a space-themed game where players control spaceships equipped with hooks to collect items scattered across galaxies. Similar to other Telegram mini-games, social tasks and inviting friends offer additional bonuses and rewards. In the case of Moonbix, users are required to create and connect a Binance account.

The gameplay looks quite straightforward: players use their ships to pick up stones, gift boxes, and even mysterious spaceships that might contain special rewards or airdrops. The game is timed, with each session lasting 45 seconds, pushing players to gather as many points as they can.

So far, the Moonbix official announcement channel has attracted more than 1 million subscribers, and its official Telegram bot has over 15,000 monthly users.

How to Play Moonbix?

To get started, make sure you have a verified Binance account, complete the simple KYC process, and link it to your game profile. This is your chance to play, earn, and join the exciting world of P2E games.
