What is the $INGER Token?

As the native token of Ingersoll Lockwood, $INGER is designed to support and reward researchers for actively seeking the truth. $INGER will be used to fund educational initiatives that foster rational and critical thinking and in-depth research skills. The token and project were launched specifically to ask pertinent “Q”uestions (questions) and decide, without external pressure, what truth is, where it comes in, and what it means.

Besides, $INGER will also act as an incentivization tool. Through a decentralized ecosystem, this token will reward contributors each time they produce well-researched and factual interpretations of Q drops. $INGER will promote community engagement on a deeper level, offering a sustainable and decentralized platform where all truth seekers can collaborate, exchange ideas, critique each other, and respectively challenge diverse perspectives.

$INGER Tokenomics

With a maximum token supply of 1.7 billion, detail information about token distribution of $INGER is sets as below:

- Presale: 52.866242%
- Liquidity: 30.133758%
- CEX Listing: 17%

$INGER Roadmap

Ingersoll Lockwood team introduces an ambitious yet highly feasible roadmap, which includes three phases.

Phase 1 featured the project launch, global revolution, journey to 1,700 token holders, and awakening of the digital army.

The second phase will feature centralized exchange (CEX) listings, the development of the NFT collection, creation of a larger community of dedicated researchers. A Treasure Hunt game—Q Hunter Game—designed to take players on a QR code-replete adventurous journey is currently in the works.

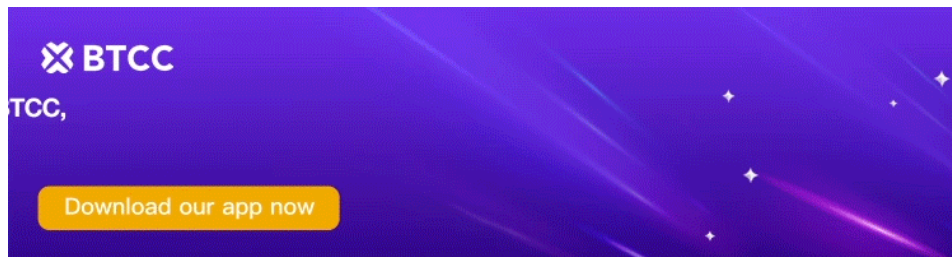

The final phase will feature the launch of a multi-chain bridge that will enable Flipping the FED with a projected $17+ billion in value.
