Wilder World (WILD) Price Prediction 2023, 2025, 2030 – Is WILD a Good Investment?

Original:

<https://www.btcc.com/en-US/academy/research-analysis/wilder-world-price-prediction-2023-2025-2030-is-wild-a-good-investment>

The world is undergoing a digital revolution right now. Everything from business and banking to gaming and socialising. It's thrilling to see humanity's most fundamental pursuits brought into the digital realm. Scientists have predicted that the rapid advances in technology we are witnessing will completely alter our familiar world, ushering in one filled with excitement, amusement, and financial gain.

As the world becomes more and more digitised, the right to manage and customise one's digital experiences becomes more and more of a necessity. Users want to feel an emotional connection to the digital world they inhabit, have full control over how their characters are used, and feel a feeling of ownership over those characters. In addition to the need for ownership and dynamic personalisation, the desire to buy and sell rights to specific goods such as automobiles, houses, lands, and even personalities arises.

The developers of Wilder World want to encourage the ongoing digital transition by providing a site where users' imaginations can run wild. The goal of Wilder World \(WILD\) is to build a Metaverse where artists are respected and their work is valued, where resources are plentiful, and where they are free to express themselves. Wilder World is the first ever global Augmented Reality art gallery. A decentralised, liquid NFT market is being operated by it.

Frank Wilder, a 3D artist, founded Wilder World, which is working with Zero technologies to offer the necessary hardware.

What is Wilder World (WILD)?

Wilder World is the first fully functional, decentralised, NFT marketplace with no artist royalties that is driven by the community. Wilder World ushers in a web3-compatible NFT market while compiling and archiving the most valuable 3D artworks available.

By facilitating tokenization of artworks, Wilder World facilitates the development of a thriving crypto-economy propelled by the independence and financialization of artists. It's a great place for artists to connect with their audiences directly.

Wilder World gives creators a place to express themselves in their preferred artistic medium while also participating in a venture that is bigger than any one person. The network is motivated in part by a desire to provide access to the Metaverse's untapped economic potential for artists.

The Wilder World economy operates with its own native token, WILD. It is the ecosystem's governance token in Wilder World. Voting privileges are attached to wild tokens. Its main purpose, however, is to promote the growth of the Metaverse by installing new users, objects, locations, protocols, and services. The Metaverse platform accepts both WILD and LOOT tokens. The LOOT coin is the system's utility token. It's needed for financial dealings, and its stockpile expands as the number of users and transactions does.

The emphasis of WILD would be on more than just NFTs. Instead, the Metaverse platform will serve as a unifying force by facilitating teamwork on narratives, personas, and settings. Wilder World's principal objective is to create a digital gallery full of the world's most prestigious goods, many of which are works of art created in 3D.

Wilder World, unlike other NFT-powered Metaverse platforms, will make the art market accessible to a new generation of creators and buyers. That's in keeping with its goal of giving voice to everyone. Wilder uses NFT ownership fractionalisation. This overcomes the liquidity problem while also democratising access to high-end art. Previously, only the wealthy had this privilege.

Community members own and operate Wilder World through a DAO that operates on the blockchain.

Wilder World ensured that artists benefited directly from the sale of their products by cutting out middlemen.

Wilder World has a no-fee layout as opposed to paying artists a salary. Using the Wild token, the network generates and redistributes wealth to its users. Wilder is public and completely constructed on the blockchain with decentralised protocols.

Is WILD a Good Investment?

Using NFT cars for racing and land construction, Wilder World is a metaverse project aiming to create a 5D virtual world. Wilder World is a 5-Dimensional metaverse built on the Ethereum blockchain. Tokens with limited exchangeability fuel it. Keep in mind that the photorealistic mixed reality worlds are a product of the Wilder World project, which was developed in partnership with Zero.Space.

The visuals of Wilder World are its primary focus, and the game has partnered with the market-leading design industry's "Unreal Engine" to deliver photorealistic effects to the virtual world. Its native currency is called WILD Coin. The WILD currency, the project's native token, is based on Ethereum's blockchain and is used for all financial and voting operations. In these racing competitions, users have the chance to win prizes and accumulate WILD coins.

Wilder World isn't only a game; players may also design their own virtual land and construct buildings on it using NFTs. The proprietors of these plots of land might generate income by selling or leasing them to others. In addition, NFT cars, lands, and other Wilder World assets can be bought and sold on the game's own market.

Decentraland and Axie Infinity are two of Wilder World's key rivals in the metaverse. However, the project has outperformed its rivals in the market, with a rising pricing trend over the past month.

Will WILD Hit $1?

WILD Coin needs to increase in value by 4.34 times from its current market price of $0.23 in order to achieve $1. In November 2021, the price of WILD skyrocketed to $7.28, an increase of 45.5 times in just 6 months. As a result, the WILD coin will need less than a month to reach $1.

The current market condition, however, is not favourable to the crypto market because of liquidity issues and inflation. Thus, it cannot achieve that value any earlier. However, as market circumstances improve for the cryptocurrency sector as a whole, the price of a single WILD coin will rise to $1 without any difficulty.

Will WILD Hit $100?

WILD currency needs to increase in value by 434.78 times from its current market price of $0.23 in order to hit $100. It will take about 57 months (less than 5 years) for the WILD currency to achieve a price of $100, given that it took 6 months to increase by 45.5 times in November 2021.

Again, this is something that can happen only if the crypto market's liquidity and other macroeconomic circumstances shift in its favour. As a result, it's safe to say that the price of a single WILD coin won't hit $100 in the next five years.
